

JOB DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE:	Fire Captain	FLSA:	Non-Exempt
DEPARTMENT:	Fire	GRADE:
REPORTS TO:	Fire Chief	DATE:	3/1/2021

SUMMARY:

Supervises and performs operational fire and rescue activities and is responsible for the operational status and combat performance of a fire station across shift lines.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

This class specification lists the major duties and requirements of the job and is not all-inclusive. Incumbent(s) may be expected to perform job-related duties other than those contained in this document and may be required to have specific job-related knowledge and skills.

- Directs the daily activities of assigned Fire Department staff; meets with staff to discuss and resolve workload and technical issues and evaluates staff performance; reviews equipment and personnel assignments; identifies service delivery issues and implements solutions.
- Recruits, trains, and leads fire personnel, volunteers, rescuers, and medics; ensures that personnel are ready and prepared for duty, are adequately trained and equipped, and are held accountable for duties and responsibilities assigned.
- Responds to emergencies and performs fire suppression and emergency medical duties as required; assumes emergency incident scene command as required.
- Operates and inspects emergency, fire, rescue, medical and life saving tools and equipment; maintains readiness of facilities, equipment and supplies.
- Prepares, edits, updates and coordinates the production of training materials; develops specialized training materials and sessions.
- Reviews changes in fire and emergency services laws, rules, regulations and policies; updates training content and provides related training as required.
- Conducts health and fire safety inspections of commercial properties.
- Investigates and determines origin and cause of fires; coordinates efforts with other agencies.
- Assists with fire prevention and education programs.
- Updates and maintains a variety of files, records, charts and other documents; gathers, compiles and synthesizes data; maintains appropriate records and prepares reports as required.
- Assists with preparation of budgets and completes documentation as needed.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS: (continued)

- Monitors and assigns maintenance of Fire Department facilities, equipment and supplies; inspects and returns equipment to service after use; reviews status of vehicles and equipment, recommends equipment replacement and repair options; supervises the preventative maintenance program for routine care of vehicles and equipment.
- Promotes and supports the overall mission of the City by demonstrating courteous and cooperative behavior when interacting with public and staff; acts in a manner that promotes a harmonious and effective workplace environment.

QUALIFICATIONS:

To perform this job successfully, an individual must be able to perform each essential duty satisfactorily. The requirements listed below are representative of the knowledge, skill, and/or ability required.

Education and Experience:

Associate's Degree in fire science, business or public administration or a related field; AND five (5) years of fire-fighting experience; OR an equivalent combination of education, training and experience.

Required Certificates, Licenses, and Registrations:

Continued employment is contingent upon all required licenses and certificates being maintained in active status without suspension or revocation.

- Driver's License.
- State Alaska Firefighter 2 certification.
- State of Alaska EMT-3 certification.
- State of Alaska EMS Instructor certification.

Required Knowledge and SkillsRequired Knowledge:

- City policies and procedures.
- Principles of fire management, suppression, prevention and education.
- Strategy and tactics for management and deployment of personnel and equipment in fire and emergency situations.
- Methods and techniques to develop and present training and education programs.
- Principles and practices of emergency medical response.
- Administrative principles and practices, including goal setting, program development, implementation and evaluation, and the management of employees.
- Principles and practices of developing teams, motivating employees and managing in a team environment.
- Principles and practices of budget development and administration.
- Applicable laws, codes and regulations.
- IT applications and systems related to the work.
- Record management principles and practices.
- Principles and practices of program planning, development and evaluation.
- Principles and practices of emergency response and planning.
- Correct business English, including spelling, grammar and punctuation.

Required Skills:

- Planning, organizing and managing comprehensive and varied fire, EMS, emergency response and prevention functions.
- Effective and efficient management of programs and staff.
- Training others in policies and procedures related to the work.
- Developing and implementing goals, objectives, policies, procedures and work standards.
- Utilizing a wide variety of fire fighting and EMS equipment and tools.
- Project and program management.
- Interpreting, applying and explaining applicable laws, codes and regulations.
- Maintaining accurate records and files.
- Providing consulting services to City officials, staff and the public.
- Preparing clear and concise reports, correspondence and other written materials.
- Using initiative and independent judgment within established procedural guidelines.
- Using tact, discretion and prudence in working with those contacted in the course of the work.
- Taking effective action in emergency situations.
- Performing effective oral presentations to large and small groups.
- Contributing effectively to the accomplishment of team or work unit goals, objectives and activities.
- Establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with a variety of individuals contacted in the course of the work.

PHYSICAL/MENTAL REQUIREMENTS:

The physical demands described herein are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of the job. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Mobility to work in an office setting, use standard office equipment and stamina to sit, stand, walk for extended periods of time; agility to traverse uneven terrain; strength to lift and carry up to 100 pounds; vision to read printed materials and computer screens; and hearing and speech to communicate in person or over the telephone.

WORKING ENVIRONMENT:

Work is performed in an office and field setting.

Travel required to locations throughout the City; exposure to adverse environmental conditions, gasses, fumes, heights, confined spaces, hazardous chemicals and life threatening conditions.